TAXATION AND NO REPRESENTATION

Feeling in Canada Akin to That Preceding American Revolution.

MAY GET FREEDOM.

Lader of Laurier Bolt Opponent of Reciprocity Makes Prophecy of Future of Country.

London, Jan. 21.—The feling between Canada and England today is much similar to that what the feeling was between England and the thirteen American colonies in 1775, and it will ultimately result in absolute freedom for Canada according to Henry Bourssa, leader of the Laurier bolt in the last Canadian political campaign and stron gopposition of reciprocity. Bourssa made the statement in an interview today.

"The greatest question of the day in Canada," declared Bourassa, "is that of contribution to Great Britain. Canada is a trans-continental country and as long as we are not represented in the affairs of the empire we should be under no obligations to that empire.

"Is is the same things over again of your original thirteen colonies—taxation without representation. Anti-imprialists, and indeed many other political classes have turned against Borden because of the dissatisfaction he has created by advocating a $35,000,000 for English warships. The advocacy chased Mr. Monk from the government service.

"The opposition arguments that we receive protection from England and should, therefore contributs to it is but merest incident. With no representation abroad we should no more contribute than did the thirteen original colonies. Canad needs no navy. Canada does need coast protection especially at the mouth of the St. Law rence.

"We do not desire to secede from Great Britain but we would much rather undergo natural development of independence under the nationalist ides than have constant friction, disagreements and distrusts under imperialism. Independence is the moral outcome of any colony."

Volcano in Eruption.

Mexico City, Jan. 21.—Colima volcano is in violent eruption today and inhabitants of several towns and villages near the mountain are fleeing to escape death by strangulation.

The big crater is vomiting enormous quantities of lava, sand, ashes and poisonous gases. So far as known through reports reaching here today, no persons have met death, although hundreds of cattle and other animals have been killed.

Important Discovery.

M. Dussaud, a French scientist, who has discovered a means for the production of what he terms "cold light," has made public some details of his discovery, which it is thought may revolutionize electric lighting.

Starting on the principle that rest is as essential to matter as to animal organism, he has constructed an electric lamp in which the light is concentrated on a single point by filaments working successively; thence the light is projected through a lens magnifying a thousandfold. Thus he has suceeded in concentrating a 2,000 candle-power light on one point and in passing 32 volts into an eight-volt lamp, which with the ordinary light would burst.

Experiments with this lamp have established that the new light is absolutely without danger, as no heat is given off, and it requires 100 times less current than the ordinary lamp. It can be worked by a tiny battery, or sufficient motive power can be obtained from a jet of water from an ordinary faucet or even a squirrel turning a cage.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A mob at Lake Placid, N. Y., composed of some of the most prominent citizens of the town, dragged Homer Mitchell through the streets and horse whipped him Sunday night because he appeared at a funeral intoxicated and created a disturbance. Mitchell was admonished to stay sober or suffer a repetition of the punishment.

Geologists declare that scientific discoveries of great value might be expected from a ten-ton meteorite, which fell into the Alleghany Valley, several miles from Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday. Many persons, among them geologists, visited the scene today, and if possible, the meteorite will be dug up and presented to a museum. The meteorite sank 20 feet into the earth, leaving one corner exposed. So great was the heat that trees several hundred yards distant were seared. The fumes from the smoking meteorite gave off a gaseous odor which led to reports that a big gas well had been struck in the vicinity.

President-elect Woodrow Wilson yesterday reached what he considers the climax in his program of reform as Gov. of New Jersey. Seven bills making for the most extensive revision of the co-operative laws in the history of the State were introduced last night in the state legislature. These acts are designed to put an end to trusts and monopolies under the laws of New Jersey," declared Governor Wilson, in a prepared statement prescribing the measures,"I confidently predict that they will accomplish that much desired result."

A great sensation has been caused at Agen, near Toulose, France, by the death of the Abbe Chassaing cure of the Parish of St. Hilaire, who was found in the apartment of Mme. Alice Crespy, one of his parishioners, with a bullet in his forehead. The relations between the priest and Mme. Crespy had been a matter of common knowledge in Agen. Mme. Crespy declares that the priest shot himself. It is now alleged by the police that the fatal shot was fired from some distance at the abbe. Mme. Crespy is a divorced woman, eccentric in character and behavior. She confessed long ago to friends that she loved the abbe.

A climax to the search for members of the automobile crew in Chicago came yesterday with the shooting and killing of Detective Peter Hart with his own revolver by one of the bandits. The detective was shot through the heart when he entered a flat at 1617 south Wabash avenue for the purpose of arresting "Bob" Webb, said to be an accomplice of James B. Perry, confessed bandit, now under arrest. After shooting Hart, the assassin leaped through a window to an adjoining building, ran the length of a block, went down a stairway, and escaped in a crowd.

After overpowering Jailer Chapman and Lon Siers, an electrician, five prisoners confined in the Cabell county W. Va., jail made their escape in broad daylight yesterday and last night only one of them had been captured. The jailer was ecorting the electrician into the jail to make some repairs. The men had pried an iron bar from the grating. They were crouched together and sprung upon the jailer and, after knocking him and the electrician unconscious with blows on the head, took a gun from the jailer's pocket and quietly made their escape.

Though blinded by an oil-cup explosion while in the clouds over Hempstead plains, N. Y., yesterday, Miss Bernetta A. Miller retained her nerve, guided her aeroplane to the ground, 1,800 feet below, and alighted without injuring herself or machine. Miss Miller, who will guide an aeroplane in thes uffragists' parade in Washington, D. C., on March 3, was trying for an altitude record.

A riot broke out in the House of Representatives of the Wyoming legislature yesterday when Speaker Pratt and Speaker Pro Tem. Wood both claimed the right to preside. A violent fight, interrupted by members, took place between the two officers. The scene of violence lasted fully three-quarters of an hour, and included two separate encounters between Pratt and Wood. The immediate occasion of the trouble was the attempt of Speaker Martin L. Pratt to call to the chair F. C. Hunter, Republican, of Carbon county.

SUFFERING FROM FLOOD IN OHIO

Cold Weather Intensifies Distress of the Many Homeless Ones.

APPEALS FOR RELIEF.

Situation Improved by Cessation of Rains—River and Tributaries Have Reached Their Crest.

Evansville Ind., Jan. 21.—Suffering in th flooded Ohio River Valley was intensified today by the first real cold weather of the winter. Relief committees were besiged with appeals for coal, for second story dwellers. Live stocks, which escaped the high waters suffered greatly.

The situation was improved, however, the rains having stopped and the Ohio and its tributaries having reached their crest. Barring a return of the continual downpour for the last ten days, the waters were expected to begin receding late today.

The scene along the Ohio from Cincinnati to Cairo is a desolate one. Where levees have been repaired and the flood driven back the inhabitants were engagd in cleaning away the debris and muddy ooze that invaded their factories, stores and homes. Enterprise, Ind., more than half swept away still was submerged up to the caves of the houses remaining and the refugees in nearby Rockport were facing absolute poverty in a fresh start in life.

Shawneetown, Ill., reported that the situation continued critical today, with the Ohio's waves lapping the top of the levee. Boys aided the men in the trolling the levee, on the lookout for the slightest sign of weakness.

Blease Sends Message.

In another message to the legislature on the subject of the newspapers, Gov. Cole L. Blease, of South Carolina, arraigns William E. Gonzales editor of the Columbia State, and repeatedly refers to fact that the late Lieut. Gov. James H. Tillman, who killed Mr. Gonzales' brother, N. G. Gonzales, formerly editor of the State, because of editorial statements which Mr. Tillman called lies, was found not guilty by the jury.

"If a man is thus mistreated, villified, and abused," he says, "and the people rebuke the conspirators and falsifiers by electing the man lied upon, he can submit and rest on his laurels, but if he is defeated and feels that only blood will remove the stains, because the law gives him no redress, then, if he defends his honor with blood, who blames him? Certainly not a Lexington jury."

It was a Lexington couny jury which acquitted Lieut. Gov. Tillman. The governor then charges mistreatment in the case of his speech at the governor's conference in Richmond in November, in which he indorsed the lynching without trial of negro assailants of white women. He complains of the republication of unfavorable editorials from other states.

GAVE COMMANDER A SURPRISE.

A few nights ago the Lady Maccabees gave their commander, Mrs. George Zachary, a surprise. There were 32 ladies in the party. During the evening Mrs. Zachary was presented by the Hive with a handsome set of silver tea spoons; and Mrs. James H. Mansfield with a silver gravy ladle. Mrs. Mansfield has served as lady-at-arms for six years, and is the oldest commander of the Hive. The organization will hold its regular meeting at their hall tonight, at which time it is hoped there will be a full attendance. On Monday the Ladies of the Hive will give a coffee social at the residence of Mrs. McCauley, in Del Ray.

POLK MILLER COMING.

Great Interest is Being Shown in Visit of Famous Entertainr.

Great interest is being shown in the visit of Polk Miller to Alexandria a week from tonight and he will no doubt be greeted by a large audience who will have the opportunity for the last time to hear this famous story-teller .Mr. Miller is the best delineator of the Old Southern Plantaton negro that has ever appeared on the public stage, and his description of his "boyhood's happy days down on the farm" introduces the most side-splitting stories, and repoduces in a realistic manner those old plantation melodies, accompanied by the banjo, which carry the old-time Southerners back to the days of their childhood; and gives to those who are not familiar with negro very best opportunity of hearing pure Negro Dialect from one who knows it not from study nor from reading, but from having been in contact with the race all his life.

The entertainment is in no sense a lecture, but is rather "An Evening of Story and Song." If you would enjoy a hearty laugh, Mr. Miller comes prepared to furnish the incentive.

Brent, between the attorneys of Alexandria City in the annexation case which was decided against the city by Judge Bennett T. Gordon, and the General Laws and Finance Committees of City Council, to determine whether or not the annexation case will be taken to the Supreme Court of Appeals. There is a considerable amount of sentiment in favor of taking such action and it may be to request Council for an appropriation for this purpose.

WILL ATTEND THE RECEPTION

President-Elect Says His Wife and Daughter Will Be Prsent.

NO HANDSHAKINGS.

Says He is Glad to Hear of Action of Inaugural Committee in Eliminating Ball Feature.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 21.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and the three Misses Wilson will attend the inauguarl reception in the Capitol Rotunda with the president-elect if one is held but will not stand in line and shake hands.

This statement was made today by Governor Wilson when his attention was called to the report that his wife and daughters would not attend.

"That is a mistake," said he. "If the reception is held, they will of course be there with me. I have merely asked that they be excused from the hand-shaking, because it would be a pretty hard job for them to stand all the afternoon and do that."

Governor Wilson was shown the reports that the inaugural ball had been abandoned because of objections by Mrs. Wilson and because the Wilsons feared the "turkey trot" and other such dances would be indulged in. He said:

"That is utter nonsense. There isn't a word of truth in it. My reasons for asking that no ball be held were clearly set forth in my letter."

Speaking of the action of the inaugural committee in deciding finally to give up the ball, Governor Wilson said:

"I am glad to hear it. I am glad to have been the instrument through which the elimination of that institution was accomplished."

Blizzard in the West.

One man was killed, five others serious injured, traffic of all kinds was seriously hampered, and general suffering was caused by a blizzard which gripped Chicago and vicinity yesterday. It began with a mild rain in the morning, followed by sleet and snow, and in the afternoon took on the roaring tactics of a blizzard. Meanwhile the temperature was dropping rapidly. Horses and pedestrians were falling on the icy streets in every direction. Telegraph and telephone wires, heavily loaded with sleet, snapped as the sudden cold contracted them , and street cars crept cautiously through the whirling mists of snow.

Government forecasters say zero weather will prevail and it will continue until Wednesday night, accompanied by snow. Advices from southern Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and northern Indiana and eastern Iowa tell of severe storms.

The storm, which was unexpected, fell with unusual force upon the poor of Chicago, who have rejoiced in the unusually mild winter and made no provisions for a suden attack of wintery blasts. Before noon every charitable organization in the city was besieged with frantic calls for fuel and food.

Dispatches say a cold wave is traversing all of the Missouri river valley and it is growing colder at a rapid rate. The temperature dropped 40 degrees in six hours in Texas, and snow and sleet are falling in the Panhandle. The entire country west of the Rocky Mountains appears to be in for a touch of the cold wave.

No Strike.

New York, Jan. 17.—The general walk out of 10,000 hotel employes in all branches of the trade did not take place today, following a discussion of the union leaders to postpone action until all the workers had been assembled in the amss meeting Sunday to vote on the question. Several thousand waiters and cooks stood in favor of the general walk out but the I. W. W. Organizers in charge of the strike agreed to give the other departments in hotel workers union a chance to express their sentiment before issuing a definite strike call.

Philadelphia.—The brewery workers union is peeved. Seven free beers a day has replaced the carte blanche order.

Bailey took an appeal to the Circuit Court of Fairfax, but later abandoned the appeal and paid the fine and cost.

ALEXANDRIAN ROBBED.

Ashley L. Bader, freight conductor on the Southern Railway, residing at 107 north Payne street, in this city, was robbed of $150 and a gold watch last night about 9:30 o'clock, while in the vicinity of 3d and K streets southwest, Washington. Two unidentified colored men knocked him down and took his valuables, he told the police. Earlier in the night Bader visited a house in the northwest section of the city. He left there about 9 o'clock, he said, and when he reached 3d and K streets southwest, he was knocked down and robbed.

The police think Bader probably was robbed by men, who early Sunday morning knocked down Robert Watkins, a farmer from Cedar Grove, Montgomery county, Md., and robbed him of $100, a check and package of papers. Watkins was at 10th and C streets northwest about 3 o'clock in the morning when he was robbed. He said he was dealt a stunning blow by a colored man and knocked down, and he thought there were four members of the band of robbers. While Watkins was held on the sidewalk by one of the men, he stated, others searched his pockets and took his money, check and papers. Several colored men were arrested on suspicion of complicity in the hold-up. Watkins was unable to identify them, and they were discharged.

GARMENT WORKERS VOTING ON STRIKE

Union Official From New York to Speak in Chicago Tonight.

MAY BE ARBITRATED.

Should Strike be Declared Forty Thousand Persons Would be Thrown Out of Employmnt.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Garment workers will decide tonight whether to strike in sympathy with the New York workers.

The specific grievance of the workers is that New York manufacturers have had their work done here. Louis Totsky, New York Union ficials, is here to address tonight's mass meeting and to urge the workers to go on. A committee of the local union has made the rounds of the shops to prepare a report on where work was being done for New York shops. A large list is said to have been made.

A move to arbitrate may be made at tonight's meeting. The employers are said to be willing to receive a committee of the union officials to work out a settlement of their grievances.

A strike in the garment trades would throw 40000 workers out of employment. Since the strike of two years ago, when the workers lost, there has been much discontent and frequent rumors if another tie-up.

To Wear Virginia Silk.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 21.—The dress Miss Eleanor Wilson will wear at the inauguration of her father, Woodrow Wilson, president-elect of the United States, will be made from silk manufactured in Norfolk. It was presented to Miss Wilson by a local silk company.

Miss Wilson, in accepting the $650 dress, was asked to name the shade of silk she desired. She selected the color of the outside petal of the American Beauty Rose. The material was made as she directed, and was sent to New York to a fashionable dressmaker.

The president-elect's daughter had previously said she wanted to wear something made in Virginia at the inauguration of her father, who is a native of this State.

Must Not Quarrel With Wives.

Orders have been given by the New Haven Railroad for its employes to be friendly with their wives. They have been warned that the company regards the family man as more desirable than the single man who lacks ties and stability. The wives of the railroaders also will be watched. Wives who dispute their husband's earnings and get on the black list of the grocery stores for not paying their bills will get their husbands in trouble.

It will be the theory of the railroad that the staid married man, linked to a wife of industrious habits, will prove the most desirable employe the railroad can possess. Such employes will be selected for promotion in preference to men of sporting inclinations or those whose wives show traits that may unsettle their husbands and make them worry while at work.

Several employes have recently been warned that unless they had less trouble at home they could not be regarded as safe to handle trains loaded with passengers.

One report has it that a recent accident on the New Haven road was caused by the carelessness of an engineer who had just gone through a terrific quarrel with his wife.

AGAINST REMOVAL.

Committee Appointed by Chamber of Commerce to Act .

Alexandria is to make a determined effort to retain its custom house which it is understood is among the number slated by Preident Taft to be discontinued under the authority granted by Congress for the reduction of a number of custom houses, as stated in the Gazette yesterday.

The question was dicussed at a special meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held yesterday morning and the matter was referred to the River and Navigation committee of that body which is composed of George S. French, chairman, W. A. Smoot, sr., Henry K. Field, W. M Reardon and C. W. Wattles. Chairman French has taken the matter up vigorously and will confer at once with the Virginia senators and representatives in Congress.

ACCUSED IS DISMISSED.

Storekeeper Arraigned in Police Court to Answer Charge of Selling Unsound Meat

A. G. Spirling, who conducts a store in the northwestern section of the city, was cited to appear in the Police Court this morning on the charge of selling unsound meat to a colored family. The action was taken at the instance of Dr. Garvey, Deputy Health Officer, who had examined the meat alleged to have been disposed of by Spirling.

According to the evidence of the purchaser the meat was procured last Friday, and its condition being apparent as soon as it was brought into the home, it was not used, but was returned to the store. The proprietor, it was alleged, refused to take it back or return the money.

H. Noel Garner was counsel for Spirling, and he requested Dr. Garvey to find the section in the new health law referring to the sale of meat. Mr. Garvey to okthe law and after scanning over several pages said he could not locate it, as there was no index to the instrument. He, however, had supposed it was in section 24.

Justice Caton made an equally ineffectual endeavor to find the much-sought section, but picking up the City Code of 1874 and turning to section 7 of chapter 16 he read the law making it a misdemeanor to sell blown or unsound meat.

Mr. Garner called attention to the fact that the Code of the State provided a fine and imprisonment for disposing of unsound meat.

After an investigation of the case, the prosecution was unable to show that the meat was in an unsound condition when purchased and the accused was dismissed.

HONOR LEE'S NATAL DAY

Confederate Veterans' Building Scene of Happy Reunion of Old Confederates

It is generally admitted that the banquet given last night by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans was one of the most enjoyable since the formation of the organization many years ago. While more guests have gathered on other occasions, there never has been a time when more real enjoyment was in evidence.

The speakers were at their best, every arrangement for the reception of the guests had been made, and the affair progressed with a precision which was a noticeable feature of the reunion.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Camp, as is ever the case, had displayed their culinary powers and prepared the tables in a manner tempting to the gods. They had a number of young women attired in Confederate colors as their auxiliary and they played their parts with alacrity and as though they had been drilled for the occasion.

The wants of all were anticipated, and course followed course without delay.

The building had been beautifully and tastefully decorated. On the wall at the head of the table was a fine crayon picture of Robert E. Lee, over which a horseshoe composed of red and white carnations had been placed (the same which had been in Christ Church on Sunday) attracted general attention.

The banquet was scheduled for 7:30 o'clock, but it was about 8 o'clock before the command "fall in" was given by Commander William A. Smoot.

The members of R. E. Lee Camp and their guests had assembled in an upper room where some time had been spent in inspecting battle flags and relics of war times, while hearty hand shakes was among those who meet annually around the festive board was indulged in.

The banquetters, after having been placed in position at the tables, remained standing while Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, invoked a blessing upon the company, after which the feast began and was continued for nearly an hour.

After all had satisfied the inner man from the seasonable viands, the company was rapped to order by Commander Smoot, when the first number of the program was rendered, Adjutant Edgar Warfield being called upon to read General Lee's Farewell Address. The Adjutant performed his part in his usual impressive manner, the company standing in the meantime.

Commander Smoot subsequently introduced Hon. S. A. Rodenberry, of Georgia, who responded in an able manner to the toast, "Robert E. Lee." Mr. Rodenberry's speech was brief, but during the short time he spoke he said many things concerning the great chieftain which brought forth applause. "General Lee was not fighting for fame or profit," said the speaker, "but for his native health."

Mr. Roddenberry was followed by Hon. Thomas J. Heflin, of Georgia, who kept his hearers amused from start to finsh. He caused convulsive laughter, and at other times his pathos

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

RACE CONDITIONS.

Dr. Dillard, of Tulane, Arrives at University of Virginia.

Charlothtesville, Va., Jan. 21.—Dr. James H. Dillard, formerly Dean of Tulane University, of New Orleans, will deliver the first of the Phelps-Stokes lectures in Madison Hall this evening. Dr. Dillard is a warm personal friend of Dr. Alderman, and he is a scholar of note in this country and abroad. He has in recent years devoted his whole time to the study of race conditions in the South, believing that they constitute the Southern man's problem and that Southern men should take hold boldly and scientifically and try to improve conditions where improvement is needed. He was the leading spirit in the organization a year ago at Nashville, of the University Commission on Southern Race question, whose second conference was held in December at the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga.

BURIED IN FODDER.

Little Boy Found in Unconscious Condition in a Barn.

Bristol, Va., Jan. 21.—After a hundred men searched a day and night for Walter Whitaker, the 12-year-old son of Rufus Whitaker, near Piney Flats, a short distance from this city, the child was found unconscious under four feet of shredded fodder in a barn.

He was revived but his condition was critical. He could remember nothing of what led to his predicament.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED. ....

Newcastle Man While Hunting Accidentally Shoots Himself.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 21.—Greenwood Huffman, of Newcastle, was brought here by automobile early Sunday morning and taken to a local hospital suffering from severe gunshot wounds in the left shoulder and hand. Full detail of the circumstances could not be learned, but it is said that Mr. Huffman was hunting, and while standing on a log accidentally let his gun tip, muzzle up, and the weapon was discharged. M. C. Boydton, of Newcastle, brought the wounded man to his city.

MILITIA GETS QUARTERS.

Will Cost Nothing to House Troops in Washington.

Richmond, Jan. 21.—Free quarters for the Virginia Volunteers while in Washington attending the inauguration to Governor Woodrow Wilson as President has been, it is reported, secured by Senator Swanson. The men will be housed, it is understood, in the District of Columbia Armory and in three-story houses facing the park in the rear of the White House, only a short distance from Pennsylvania ...

Col. C. C. Vaughan, commanding First Brigade of Virginia In... with his adjutant-general. ... L. Wright, of Norfolk, visiting Washington Saturday and conferred with Senator Swanson. They were much pleased with the opportunity to secure suitable quarters, with stabling for rent, especially so, since it is said that General Stewart, of Pennsylvania militia, had been informed that he had obtained quarters for the troops from his state at a cost of only $14,700.

It is probable that 1,800 of the Virginia soldiers will be in Washington for the inaugural pararde. The cost of erecting buildings for them would have been considerable. The saving in this respect is likely to be a factor with the State Military Board, at its meeting it will hold next week, when final determination whether or not the troops will be sent to Washington for the event of March 4.

TRIAL OF CHIEF OF POLICE.

Twenty-Three Witnesses Summoned To Appear.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 21.—Twenty-three witnesses will be summoned to appear before Mayor Semness in the hearing of charges of neglect of duty and incompetency, which have been preferred against Chief of Police T. A. Mitchell. City Attorney J. A. Massie will prosecute the charges for the city and Chief Mitchell will be represented by counsel, though as yet it is not announced what attorney will represent him. The chief will summon a number of witnesses in his own behalf, and they will be heard after the prosecution rests.

It is expected that the hearing will consume the greater part of the week. In the event that Chief Mitchell is found guilty by the Mayor, he will be suspended from office. He also will have the right of an appeal to the Corporation Court.

Effect of Warm Weather.

Arvonia, Va., Jan. 21.—Owing to the remarkable warm weather, country people and villagers throughout this section are despairing in their ability to gather in an ice harvest this winter. Judging that with the lengthening days there will be daily fewer chances of the formation of ice. Practically every farmer and householder has an ice house, which is usually filled, and those years when this important product canot be obtained there is more or less suffering throughout the following summer.

Weather observers have noted here in Central Virginia that there has been a drought of marked intensity since early summer, not enough precipitation having fallen this winter, or since December 1, to cause streams perceptibly to rise or make more than half an average. As a consequence of this remarkable condition, the roads throughout this county and adjoining counties are well night perfect, being as smooth as summer roads, thoroughly packed, and with an entire absence of dust. As a consequence, riding, driving and hauling have been indulged into the fullest extent throughout the entire fall and winter.

Owing to dry conditions farmers experienced difficulty in taking down their tobacco crops from the barns, and the market ofr long intervals been comparatively free from sales. It is understood that somewhat more satisfactory prices have been paid recently than earlier in the season, and some sellers seem satisfied with the prices obtained. Owing to the drought last summer the tobacco was inferior in quality and little in quantity, and for that reason the farmers of Buckingham will realize less for their crops than for many years past.

His Skull Fractured by a Robber.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 21.—With his skull fractured in five places and the brain oozing through two of the wounds, Julius Smith, a merhant of this city, was found in the rear of his store yesterday in an unconscious condition. Eighty dollars in currency, which he had in his coat pocket is missin, and all of the pockets of his clothing were turned wrongside out, showing that robbery was the motive. The police suspect a negro who left the city shortly after the crime. Smith cannot live.

RETURNS TO DANVILLE.

Man Convicted of Embezzlement Pardoned by Governor.

Danville, Va., Jan. 21.—Emmett Moore, a white man, who last June was convicted of embezzling by a jury in the Corporation Court and sentenced to 18 months in the penitentiary, has returned here pardoned by Governor Mann. Moore declined to make any comment on his pardon. It was known here that petitions had been circulated asking the Governor for the man's pardon, but few knew that the matter had been brought before the official with such dispatch. The case was pending here for a considerable time, four postponements being granted before the trial was taken up. After a two days' hearing Moore was found guilty of embezzling $165, the offense being committed in connection with the sale of a piano. The action was instituted by an Indiana piano concern for which Moore was local agent.

FARMERS' TRAIN.

Will Stop at Various Points in Shenandoah Valley.

Winchester, Va., Jan. 21.—George W. Koiner, the Virginia commissioner of agriculture, announced here last evening that the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the department represented by him had arranged for another farmers' institute train, which will be run through the Shenandoah Valley, beginning at Wadesville, Clarke County, on the morning of January 29th, and stopping at various points until it reaches Lexington on January 31. The railroad company and the State Department of Agriculture will send a number of expert lecturers and demonstrators along with the train, to spread the gospel of modern farming among the people of the rural sections. During the past few years, these farmers' institute trains have become very popular, and last winter, when the thermometer was registering from 12 to 20 degrees below zero the train was filled at every station.

DELIVERS VIRGINA'S VOTE.

Takes Twelve Wilson-Marshall Ballots to Washington.

Richmond, Jan. 21.—Formal delivery of the vote of Virginia for Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall for President and Vice-President of the United States was made in Washington yesterday morning by James M. Hayes, jr., the messenger of the Virginia Electoral College. Mr. Hayes left Richmond on an early train, and, arriving in Washington, went at once to the Capitol.

Senator Swanson piloted the messenger to the office of Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, acting president pro tem, of the Senate. The certified copies of the vote were delivered into his hands, and he signed the receipt therefor.

Senator Gallinger's secretary made out the voucher for mileage for Mr. Hayes amounting to $29.50 or 25 cents the mile. The messenger from Oklahoma was there at the same moment, and his check for $350 made Mr. Hayes's little sum look small indeed. The messengers from Oregon and Washington get about $750 each, while the man who carries the vote of California takes down only about $10 less.

Chauffeur Robbed.

Bristol, Va., Jan. 21.—At the point of a revolver, Chauffeur Taylor Robinett, who was driving an automobile between Imboden and Big Stone Gap, was held up at midnight Sunday and robbed of $63, his watch and other valuable. The highwaymen, who were two unknown negroes, made their escape in the mountains.

Robinett, who was alone in the car, reported his experience to the Big Stone Gap officers. A posse with bloodhounds, from Stonega was formed early this morning, but a search lasting through the day failed to locate the bandits. The search will be continued.

ROBERT E. LEE'S BIRTHDAY GENERALLY CELEBRATED.

The aniversary of the birth of the great commander of the Army of Northern Virginia General Robert E. Lee, was celebrated at camp fires throughout the southern countries and in many other sections of the United States last night, all people of the country being justly proud of the fact that the illustrious man was a citizen of the United States.

The gathering in Confederate Veterans' Building was one of the most enjoyable ever witnessed in Alexandria. There was a genuine flow of soul which animated all present (including some Grand Army men).

The speakers were among the best that could have been procured, and the humor and pathos flowed steadily during the evening and which thrilled all present and left many pleasant memories of the reunion of 1913.

The responses to the toasts were made in a manner savoring of the original, and the speakers at times cast their auditors into paroxysms of laughter, while ever and anon their pathos sent thrills through their souls.

Of course, much that was said was in conection with the life and service of Robert E. Lee, whose star beams brighter and brighter as time goes on.

At present there can be but little said concuring Lee that has not been suggested during the past forty years, but it may be in order to reproduce words uttered concerning this great man by Senator Benjamin H. Hill, of Georgia, many years ago. While familiar to many, the present generation should ever be equally acquainted with them.

"When the future historian comes to survey the character of Lee, he will find it rising like a huge mountain above the undulating plain of humanity, and he will have to lift his eyes high towards heaven to catch its summit. He possessed every virtue of the other great commanders without their vices. He was a foe without hate; a friend without treachery; a soldier without cruelty, and a victim without murmuring. He was a public officer without vices; private citizen without wrong; neighbor without reproach; a Christian without hyprocrisy, and a man without guilt. He was Caesar without his ambition; Frederick without his tyranny; Napoleon, without his selfishness, and Washington without his reward. He was obedient to authority as a servant, and royal in authority as true as a king. He was a woman in life; modest and pure as a virgin in thought; watchful as a Roman vestal in duty; submissive to law as Socrates and grand in battle as Achilles!"

INAUGURATION BALL ELIMINATED.

Alexandrians will regret, with the people of Washington, that a final decision has ben reached by the inaugural committee to eliminate the ball on the evening of March 4th, which has long been one of the principal features of the inauguration ceremonies. Governor Wilson reached a definite conclusion in deciding to ask that the ball be discontinued, and his reason could not be questioned by the committee who must to a large xtent be governed by his wishes.

Comments from newspapers all over the United States sustain the president-elect in his views. This was naturally to be expected as the great majority of people are not familiar with the situation in Washington and only look upon Mr. Wilson's action in the light of the saving of some $25,000 which will be effected. They fail to oappreciate that the people of Washington are burdened with the total expense of the inauguration and that one of the main sources of revenue is the receipts from the ball.

The Washington Post says that it now remains to be seen whether Congress wherein started the first opposition to the use of the pension building, will come valiantly to the front with the alternative proposition of holding a public reception in the capital. As the resolution of the inaugural committee points out, such a reception would be purely a government function, not within the score of committee's power, but under the control of Congress.

If the purpose of the President-elect was to save the expense that would have accrued to the government from the use by the inaugural committee of the pension building, it is feared that there will be considerable disappointment when the joint congressional committee figures up the expense of holding a public reception at the capitol.

The inaugural committee, even though its plans have fallen through, has cordially promisd co-operation with Congress, and there is no reason to fear that the inauguration of the President-elect wil lnot be fully successful. It is rather unfortunate that the president-elect's wishes were not made known earlier, but now that they have reached the inaugural committee, it is made plain that they will be carried out in letter and spirit.

Lockout in Madrid.

Madrid, Jan. 21.—A lockout involving 23,000 men in the building trades and ironworkers industries was inaugurated here today and grave disorders were threatened. It was feared that the movement would spread to all the provinces of Spain. The men, following the agitation in other lines of labor, demanded shorter hours and better pay and their demand was refused. To forestall a strike, the employers decided on a lockout.

King Peter Ill.

London, Jan. 21.—A special dispatch from Semlin today says that King Peter of Servia, was seriously ill. The king, journeying a short distance from Belgrade, fainted and was rushed back to Belgrade to the care of court physicians. Nervous exhaustion, resulting from the strain of the war is said to be the cause.

Thief Arrested.

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—His job as cashier in a restaurant not paying enough to permit him to marry, Jacob R. Martin, stole $3,075 from the safe and was arrested after he had started in business to replace the stolen money.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A corporal in the Austro-Hungarian army during a sudden attack of madness yesterday shot down and filled five of his comrades of the Eighteenth infantry and fatally wounded three others, at Nevesinje, Herzegovina. The corporal then set fire to the barracks and desperately resisted attempts to capture him. He was later shot dead by a sentry.

With the severing of the marital bonds that tied John O. Schenck, the wealthy pork packer, of Wheeling, W. Va., and his wife, Laura Farnsworth, by Judge Kervey yesterday, the final chapter was written in the celebrated poisoning case that startled the country in November, 1910. Mr. Schenck also gained the custody of the children. There were eight volumes of depositions and testimony, which made a pile three feet high. In his petition Mr. Schenck charged unfaithfulness, naming Daniel Zane Phillips, a piano salesman. Mrs. Scheneck filed a cross bill, naming among others, Bessie Clayton, an actress.

Col. John Schuyler Crosby, veteran of the civil war, former governor of Montana, and a noted Indian fighter, narrowly escaped death last night in New York, when he was attacked by S. Iwamogo, his Japanese valet. Col. Croby, who is recovering from a short illness, leaped from his bed when the valet rushed at him with a large knife. Other servants came to the assistance of Col. Mosby and held the Japanese, who had shown signs of insanity on several previous occasions, until attendants removed him to Bellevue Hospital.

The Berlin Tageblatt prints a dispatch from Rome quoting an unarmed diplomatic representative of a great power in the Orient, who, in referring to the alleged outrages perpetrated upon the defenseless Turks of the Balkan States, says: "The number of those massacred is estimated at 240,000, and I consider that this number is not too high."

Aviators Ingedes and Macdonald were drowned in the Thames river near Gravesend, England, yesterday. The aeroplane pinned them beneath it when it fell into the water and they died before help could reach them. As the aeroplane struck the water the motor exploded and the two aviators were too stunned to make any effort to save themselves.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

ALEXANDRIA PROOF.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I owe my health to Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them frequently during the past seven years and they have often brought me relief after everything else had failed. The doctors treated me for a long while and said my case was a severe one. I had undergone tortures from the complaint and often I was worn out. When I had almost given up hope, I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They have strengthened me and corrected the kidney trouble."

MAY BE HELPFUL TO COOK

Some Hints as to the Best Methods of Preparing Food for the Household.

When fish of unpronounced flavor is to be boiled it is improved by the addition of vinegar to the water. If the fish is inclined to be tasteless half a pint of vinegar to an ordinary kettle of water will not be too much.

An old New England housekeeper has a cupful of rich, hot cream ready to stir into the baked beans when they come from the oven and before they go to the table.

Creamed toast in one family is prepared in this way: The bread is toasted and kept hot in a covered dish. Then a white sauce is made in the usual proportion of a cupful of rich milk or cream to a tablespoonful each of butter and flour, with salt to season. At the last, when the sauce is thick, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese are stirred in, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a dash of paprika. It is poured over the toast.

To prepare a rice omelet as one cook does it, make a white sauce with a cupful of milk and two level tablespoonfuls each of cornstarch and butter. Stir in three well-beaten yolks and a cupful of hot boiled rice. Fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of three eggs, season with paprika and a trace of nutmeg, and cook in the regular omelet pan. Serve with red currant jelly.

RIGHT WAY TO PULL CANDY

Confection May Easily Be Made Tough If It Is Wrongly Handled—The Flavoring.

Here is a recipe that pulls well when rightly done.

Molasses Candy.—One cup of molasses, three cups of sugar, one cup of water, one cup of vinegar. When boiled up, one-half cup of melted butter. When done take off the stove and put one-half even teaspoon of soda in and stir briskly, turn at once in greased pan, watch the edges and turn into the center as it cools. When ready to handle altogether, proceed as above. Test in the usual way when done. Drop a little in cold water, and when brittle it is done.

Home Helps.

To clean lacquered brass wash in hot water, using soap if necessary. Polishes should be applied to unlacquered brass only.

Folded newspapers should be kept handy in the kitchen, and these placed under pots and kettles. If this is done every day when the pans are taken from the stove no grease spots will mar the kitchen table.

Avoid open shelves in a kitchen, as the dust soon gathers there. A wide window shade is splendid to keep out the dust, and far more sanitary than a curtain.

Croquettes to be fried in deep fat should stand for 15 minutes in the warm kitchen before being cooked. This will help the browning process.

Bunny Sandwiches.

Sandwiches attractively served are always appetizing, and for a gathering of little folks they should be novel in form. These are cut in the shape of rabbits; the bread, thinly sliced, is cut into shape by the use of a card board pattern. Half the number cut are spread with a chocolate-and-nut filling, and then topped with the remaining bunnies.

A bit of melted chocolate is then dropped on to simulate an eye. Any other animal shape may be used instead of the bunny, and the same idea may be applied to any odd-shaped sandwiches that you can cut out with a knife or a cutter.—Harper's Bazar.

Date Cake.

One cup brown sugar, one cup shortening, one-half cup warm water, two cups rolled oats, two and one-half cups flour, one tablespoonful soda.

Filling.—Stone one pound of dates and cook with one-half cup water and one cup granulated sugar until soft. Spread dough in thin layer on bottom of pan, then spread with the date mixture and cover with another thin layer of the dough. When baked, cut in three-inch squares.

To Clean Mica.

To clean the darkened sheets of mica in your coal heater, await a time when the fire is out or very low. Then sponge them off with a soft piece of sponge dipped in diluted vinegar. If the black does not come off at once let it soak a little. Touch very gently as they break easily. Even though badly smoked they will become quite clear by this treatment if a little patient care is given. Let them dry gently before exposing to the heat of the fire.

Mock Rabbit.

Mix pound of raw chopped beef, and as much lean veal, also chopped, with four eggs, one cup breadcrumbs, a little salt, pepper, nutmeg, parsley, thyme and a spoon of onion juice. Beat all well and shape on a dish into an oval loaf. Cover with egg and breadcrumbs; put in a pan lined with slices of pork; baste it in oven while baking it. Bake forty minutes. Serve hot or cold in slices.

Grape Sauce.

Squeeze the pulp from the skins of grapes, then cook the pulp and strain so as to get the seeds out, then put back on the stove, put in sugar, cinnamon, clove and mace and the skins, cook all together, put in a little water. This recipe is made wholly by taste as regards quantity. It is very nice with meats.

PLEASES THE LITTLE ONES

Ingenious Toy to Be Constructed Out of Otherwise Useless Odds and Ends of Materials.

There are few among the little folks who do not take a great delight in "making things" and with some old corks, matches, pins and paper, a good deal of pleasant amusement may be derived.

In the accompanying sketch will be seen a little chauffeur constructed with the articles named, and which you will find quite easy to make. The body consists of a complete cork, and for it a well-shaped one should be selected. The head is made from a slice cut from a second cork and joined to the body with a short portion of a match, and the face can be marked upon it with the black end of a burnt match.

Diagram A shows the hat, which may be cut out in paper and fastened on to the top of the head with a drop of gum, and the peak afterwards bent downwards. For the arms, two whole matches are used, and they are secured to the body with tiny pins run through the ends and into the cork.

Diagram B illustrates this, and holes should be made for the pins with a fine needle before they are inserted, or the wood will split. The feet and legs are composed of two matches and two "slices" cut from a small cork.

When it is necessary to insert the ends of the matches into the cork, it will be found that they will go in easily if they have been cut into points, and to conclude with, the buttons on his coat can be indicated with the end of a burnt match, or small black-headed pins can be run into the cork, and in making the chauffeur, don't forget to employ used matches, not unused ones.

TO MEND KNIT UNDERWEAR

Crochet Needle, in Combination With Embroidery Frame, Will Be Found Most Effective.

A crochet needle is a good thing to mend knit underwear with. To do this, place the worn portion in an embroidery frame; then, with thread to suit the mesh of the garment, wool, silk or cotton, pick up the ends of the stitches where they are broken off and unite them, working back and forth until the holes are filled in evenly and smoothly. Perhaps the neck of the underwear has stretched in the washing until it is all out of shape; in that case run a drawstring around the neck, wet it and draw it into place; then when it is dry it will be the proper size. You may then crochet a neat beading in place of the one which has worn away; and if the buttonholes have worn out, rip off the old facing in the front and stitch on in its place a new strip of sateen. Sew the old holes together as closely as you can to their original size and shape, then catch them down to the sateen and cut that to fit; then work the hole as you would if it were a new one.

Fashion's Fancies

Plaits of many kinds are noticeable in the autumn designs for children's frocks and suits.

Every woman in Paris is wearing a corsage bouquet. Black velvet roses are among the smartest.

One phase of the Oriental tendency in this winter's fashions will show in the extensive use of red.

Some of the straight narrow skirts have tunics that break, and yet guard the straight slender lines.

Parisians are bringing out a new printed taffeta of coloring and design inspired by Persian pottery.

The new furs are so light and supple that the wearer might imagine herself in a coat of feathers.

The new silhouette, while straight, is much softer in line because of the filmy draperies so much in vogue.

Ribbons with printed floral designs, like the French fabrics of the eighteenth century, are largely employed.

Some waists are made with plaited sections, not only on their fronts and backs, but also on their sleeves.

Favorite raincoats are on nainsook lines, some having the belted back and adjustable collar. Some recent models are only seven-eighths long.

Lace Insertion.

When lace insertion is set crosswise in a thin skirt the weight of the cloth below soon causes it to tear. This may be remedied by putting a piece of net a little wider than the insertion back of it. The net strengthens the insertion but does not detract from its daintiness.

FAVORITES OF YORE AGO

RECIPES THAT HAVE STOOD THE TEST OF TIME.

"Mother's" Bond Tarts Deservedly Eulogized—German Puffs as They Should Be Made—Extra Savory Cocoanut Jumbles.

Mothers are like bables, they are the proper gender of "it" in the eyes of their families. However, the opinion that mother is an excellent cook has been shared by all who have been guests at our board. Housework has never ceased to be a novelty to her, and it has always seemed to be her desire to tickle the palates and hearts of her children. And she has succeeded admirably.

The other day when we were looking over some of the old recipe books, the reminiscent mist that covered her eyes was followed by a happy gleam at the thought of the pleasure each savory formula has given.

It has always seemed that mother's concoctions are a little different from the ordinary housewife's. I know that they are, for the dear old soul is "deliciously" original, knowing the proper ingredient to add in order to make the mixture doubly good. Her sand tarts are one of the most precious tidbits.

This is the recipe: One pound of flour, one pound of sugar, one pound of butter, one or two eggs to make the mixture a dough, a dash of cinnamon; strew blanched almonds on top of the cakes.

This is an especially old way of making German puffs. Mother could hardly refresh her memory from the faded pages, but of course she almost knows it by heart, for at each Yuletide she makes the "goodies" over and over again. This is it: One pint of milk, four eggs, four tablespoons full of flour, two tablespoons full of butter. Bake in cups. When baked sift sugar over tops.

Grandmother gave this cocoanut jumble recipe to our family: One cup of butter, two cups of sugar, three cups of flour, two eggs, one cocoanut; cream the butter and sugar, and then add eggs until light; add cocoanut; then flour. Roll on board lightly with hand and shape into rings. Keep about a half of cup of flour for rolling.

Here is a cinnamon cake combination that is rich and delicious: One-half pound of butter, one pound of brown sugar, two eggs, one ounce of cinnamon, flour to make a stiff dough, roll thin.

These directions for the making of spice cakes were given before "the cost of living" was known: Three pounds of brown sugar, two and a half pounds of butter, nine eggs, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, one nutmeg, three teaspoonfuls of pearl ash dissolved in pint of warm milk, 50 tablespoons full of flour, put butter in last; bake next day.

This is an irresistible way of making little cakes: Beat a half-pound of butter with the hand, one pound of flour, one-half pound of sugar, one glass of brandy, cinnamon, bake in cups.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Hungarian Goulash.

Two pounds lean beef cut from the lower part of the round or other cheap lean meat, wipe and cut in one inch cubes. Add the meat cubes to four cupfuls of rapidly boiling water, to which has been aded three slices of onion. Let boil five minutes, cover and let simmer until the meat is tender. Pare potatoes and cut in three-quarter inch cubes. There should be one and one-half cupfuls. Cover with boiling salted water and let boil five minutes. Drain and add to the meat fifteen minutes before serving time to finish the cooking. Peel twenty-four tiny onions and cook in boiling salted water to cover. Drain and add to the goulash. Cream three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three tablespoonfuls of flour and work together until smooth, then add by spoonfuls to the stock in the stewpan, of which there should be two cupfuls, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and turn onto hot platter.

Orange Shortcake.

Sift two cupfuls of flour into a basin, add three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Rub three tablespoonfuls of butter and three tablespoonfuls of lard into the flour. Add one cupful of milk, and when thoroughly mixed divide in halves; put half into a round, buttered cake tin. Bake 12 minutes in a hot oven. Separate the upper portions from the lower portions of each cake with a fork. Spread with butter and fill with sliced and sweetened oranges. Garnish top layer with oranges and beaten cream.

Pepper Nuts.

Take four cupfuls of fine sugar, eight eggs, stirring them for nearly one-half hour. Beat whites by themselves; rind of two lemons, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, flour enough to roll, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of ground cloves, one teaspoon of allspice, one grated nutmeg. Cut them into any desired shape and put two drops of lemon juice on each cake. Let stand over night and in the morning turn over and bake.

Banana Layer Cake.

One small cup of butter and two cups of sugar beaten together until light; then add one cupful of milk and four eggs well beaten, add three cups of flour, into which have been sifted two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in layer tins. Slice bananas with whipped cream.

POLK MILLER IN "Old Times Down South"

An evening of Old Plantation, and War Stories and Songs by Polk Miller assisted by Col. "Tom Barker" and Mr. Miller's famous QUARTETTE OF GENUINE OLD VIRGINIA NEGROES.

Mr. Miller tells stories of his boyhood days on a Virginia plantation, and gives humorous Sketches, Recitations and Dialect Stories and Songs, impersonating the old Southern Negro accompanying himself on the Banjo.

WHAT GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE SAID OF HIM:

"When Polk Miller is gone, the man who can best tell of the Old South will have passed away. He has no predecessor, has no contemporary, and will have no successor."

Two Full Hours of Mirth and Music

EDUCATIONAL, AND AS AMUSING TO CHILDREN As IT IS ENTERTAINING TO GROWN PEOPLE.

Songs, Stories, Dialects, Recitations, Banjo Picking, and the Harmonious Blending of the natural voices of Genuine negroes come in such quick succession you don't have time to get tired.

WHAT "MARK TWAIN' SAID:

"Those who failed to hear Polk Miller and his wonderful quartet at Carnegie Hall last night, missed about the only thing now left that is originally, and utterly American. I can never forget that pair of musical earthquakes—the Water melon Song, and Old Dan Tucker."

Polk Miller's Quartette

This quartette was organized by Mr. Polk Miller for use in his entertainment of "Old Times Down South." They are not such as are seen in vaudeville performances, and are not of the cake walkin' Dude variety, but the REAL THING! THEY IMITATE NOBODY! As to their voices, they are the sweet, though uncultivated results of nature, producing a harmony unequalled by the professional, and because natural, go straight to the hearts of the people.

WASHINGTON LETTER

To allay apprehensions of American citizens at Vera Cruz, who fear disorder in connection with threatened attacks by Mexican rebels, the Navy Department decided today to send a battleship to that port. One of the vessels in the Atlantic division, now at Guantanamo, Cuba, will probably be designated this afternoon.

After all, it may happen that Governor Wilson will come to the Capital, take the oath as Chief Executive, read his inaugural address, review a parade—and then go to the White House to spend his first evening as President getting acquainted with his new quarters. The citizens' inaugural ball—and there may be no inaugural reception. The citizens' inaugural committee passed the question of arranging for a reception at the Capitol, in line with the President-elect's suggestions, to a congressional committee. Before that committee met today, individual members expresed the view that they had no authority to make reception plans. As a result, it may happen that plans for this function also may go by the board.

The program for the formal counting of the electoral vote in joint session of the two houses of Congress in the House Hall on February 12th was adopted on concurrent resolution by Senator Dillingham. Two tellers will be named from each chamber.

Complete abandonment of the inaugural ball feature of the induction ceremonies for president-elect Wilson was made by the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds today. At the request of George Hamilton, chairman of the Executive body of the inaugural committee, Rep. Morris Shepard, of Texas, moved that the section of the House resolutions granting the use of the Pension building for the inaugural ceremonies and that making appropriations to cover the expenses of the affair be eliminated. The committee unanimously acquiesced in Sheppard's request. There was no discussion or mention of the ball. The members of the committee seemed resigned to yield without protest to the wishes of the president-elect that the ball feature be abolished.

Peace Conference.

London, Jan. 21.—The peace delegates today were still awaiting developments from Constantinople and everybody but the Turks were plainly impatient at the delay.

The Bulgarians were armed with authority from Sofia to terminate the armistice wherever they saw fit, but the ultimatum delivered to the Porte by Montenegro, Bulgaria and Servia, that war would be resumed in 14 days if the Turks had not by that time accepted the allies' terms indicated that Dr. Daneff had no intention of exercising his power within the fortnight.

Dispatches from Constantinople said that the meeting of the National Assembly to consider Turkey's reply to the powers had been postponed until tomorrow. Only a formal session will be held then, it was said. The Sultan will preside, but only as a figurehead, retiring before the serious business of the council is taken up.

Aviator Penniless.

London, Jan. 21.—Captain Bertram Dickson, the aviator recently frightfully injured in Italy, today learned of the failure of a bank that left him penniless, and the supersitious friends of the airman are certain that the Priestes sif Amn-a is at her old tricks again.

The supposed mummy of the priestess is on exhibition in the British museum, and though the lady has been dead some 3,000 years, attaches of the museum believe that she has a baleful influence over those who show to much curiosity concerning her.

Dickson and his sister, Mrs. George Gordon, visited the museum together and spent considerable time looking over the priestess and talking about her. Then they visited the continent. In Italy Dickinson collided in midair with an aeroplane, and was sent to a hospital, while the other aviator was unhurt.

About the same time Mrs. Gordon was shipwrecked off the Albanian coast and was painfully injured in making a landing.

Then came Dickinson's financial reverses.

Divorce Granted.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 21.—Josiah V. Thompson, millionaire coal and coke operator and banker, today is minus his wife and one of his millions and Blanche A. Thompson is minus a husband but has one of the millions.

The special decree by which Thompson gets his divorce but handed over a million dollars, gives each party to the suit the right to marry again. The testimony was not made public.

August 10, 1903, Thompson, who was a widower, married Mrs. Blanche Gardner Hawes, a widow, in New York. The following year the couple came to Uniontown and Thompson built a magnificent residence on an 1,800 acre estate. For the past two years the Thompson's have not lived together. Thompson is 58 years old and Mrs. Thompson is about 41. She lives in the Plaza Hotel in New York.

A HAPPY FAMILY REUNION.

Many of our readers will remember the gallant and dashing daredevil Fred Smith of Mosby's command during the late unpleasantness. Major Smith was the youngest son of the late Governor Smith and like his father believed in doing what he preached and was a gallant and brave soldier. His zeal and patriotism probably out-stepping his discretion (he was then only a young man, lead him into some daredevil scrape which was perfectly legitimate in war but was hardly countenanced by our friends, the enemy who were very anxious to get hold of the Major and had they done so it would not have been very pleasant for him, so he got to South America as soon as possible, and then made a tour of the world returning for a short time to see his distinguished brother, Col. Thomas Smith and his sister at Warrenton and then the wander-lust striking him again he went to South Africa where he settled and married a most charming lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have for sometime been staying in Washington much to the pleasure of their relatives and friends in this section. January 19th was his 69th birthday and a few friends assembled at the Plymouth in Washington to congratulate him upon the occasion. Among the guests present were a number of persons well-known in Alexandria. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, of 805 Cameron street, together with their daughter, who now resides in Washington; Major Towson Smith, formerly of Fauquier; Mrs. Dr. Keech, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander J. Wedderburn, and Miss Mary Wedderburn and a host of other friends.

The principal number of those present were Smiths. In fact, Mr. Cowhard, of Texas, who is a friend of the Major's remarked that he thought that it would be a variety for anyone to find a Jones or a Brown.

The occasion was entirely informal and consisted only of relatives of Major Smith who desired to express their pleasure at having him back in America where all of them trust that he will remain.

Pastor Ousted.

Rev. Dr. Charles Edward Raymond, former pastor of the Bedford Street German Lutheran Church at Cumberland, Md., and later pastor of the Church of Peace, Gough street, Baltimore, has been dismissed as pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran Church, Peoria, Ill.

His dismissal came at the end of a secret trial which lasted five days and was the culmination of a church scandal which kept the Northern Illinois Synod in a turmoil for three years. There were numerous charges, and women of the Peoria congregation say he seemed to have hypnotic power.

While pastor at Cumberland Dr. Raymond professed to be a hypnotist, and was called in by dentists to hypotize patients that they might be unconscious of pain when teeth were extracted.

Kissing women of his congregation and other undue familiarities were among the charges.

It was charged among members of the congregation that a homely woman did not have a chance to get on a committee which was likely to be in frequent consultation with the pastor.

Constantinople.—Dress reform for Turkish women was nipped in the bud by the military commandant who decreed that religious laws be obeyed under threat of dire punishment.

and originality brought forth tremendous applause. His powers of mimicry are unexcelled, and his imitations of the old time Southern darkey kept his hearers in continual merriment. His subject was "The Southern Cause."

Captain S. B. Davis was called upon for a speech. While the Captain's remarks were impromptu, he was, as is always the case, equal to the occasion, and his remarks well relished.

Rev. W. J. Morton, who delivered an oration on Robert E. Lee at Christ Church last Sunday, was the next speaker. He again spoke of General Lee, and while his address was substantially as delivered in the historic edifice, many additional thoughts were interjected. His response was justly appreciated by all present.

H. Noel Garner responded to the H. Noel Garner, who responded to the toast "Sons of Confederate Veterans." Mr. Garner handled his subject in an able manner, and uttered many truths which the progeny of all who wore the gray should remember throughout life, and be proud that they are the offsprings of members of the gallant band who followed one greater than Alexander, Ceasar or Napoleon.

Short but interesting speeches were delivered by Rev. Dr. J. A. Alliso nand Colonel Chamberlain, of California.

Victim of Swindle.

New York, Jan. 20.—District Attorney Whitman said today that he would call Justice Goff's attention to the suicide of Mrs. Eleanor Barry, victim of the swindling operations of the Jackson Brothers realty company, when Edgar R. Jackson, head of the firm convicted of grand larceny is arraigned Wednesday for sentence. The district atorney intimated that he would make Mrs. Barry's death and the suicide of three others, alleged to have been fleeced by the real estate man, the basis for a plea for the imposition of the extreme sentence of ten years' imprisonment.

Jackson is under several other indictments and on Wednesday the district attorney will decide whether to prosecute or permit Jackson to be sentenced on the conviction already attained.

Mrs. Barry killed herself in her apartments on Clarmont avenue.

Granted Insurance After Consumption

There are so many cases of Consumption reported where the details show the disease started with a cold or a cough, that it is really surprising that people are not more anxious to immediately stop these apparently minor troubles. Our advice is "stop the cough or cold, if possible, without delay." Otherwise more serious troubles are likely to follow. If the medicines you are now taking do not bring relief, try Eckman's Alterative, as this man did:—

257 Dean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Gentlemen:—I am giving you below a brief history of my case, which I trust you will use for the benefit of those suffering from any similar troubles.

"About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly failing, until at the end of six months my weight had fallen to 129 pounds. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was very weak, having in fact absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied I went to another doctor, who after examining me said that I was in the first stages of consumption. At this point I started to take Eckman's Alterative. The night sweats stopped almost immediately, my cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 142 pounds and my physician has pronounced me perfectly sound—which, together with the fact that I have been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alterative. I should be very glad to communicate with any one who would be interested in my case.
